No Member shall have any interest in any specific assets of the Company.

3. Transfer of Interest

- A. Sale or Encumbrance Prohibited: Except as otherwise permitted in this Agreement, no Member may voluntarily or involuntarily transfer, sell, convey, encumber, pledge, assign, or otherwise dispose of (collectively, "Transfer") an interest in the Company without the prior written unanimous consent of the other non-transferring Members determined on a per capita basis.
- B. Right of First Refusal: Notwithstanding Section 3.A, a Member may transfer all or any part of the Member's interest in the Company (the "Interest") as follows:
1. The Member desiring to transfer his or her Interest first must provide written notice (the "Notice") to the other Members, specifying the price and terms on which the Member is prepared to sell the Interest (the "Offer").

2. For a period of 30 days after receipt of the Notice, the remaining Members may acquire all, but not less than all, of the Interest at the price and under the terms specified in the Offer. If the other Members desiring to acquire the Interest cannot agree among themselves on the allocation of the Interest among them, the allocation will be proportional to the Ownership Interests of those Members desiring to acquire the Interest.
3. Closing of the sale of the Interest will occur as stated in the Offer; provided, however, that the closing will not be less than 45 days after expiration of the 30-day notice period.
4. If the other Members fail or refuse to notify the transferring Member of their desire to acquire all of the Interest proposed to be transferred within the 30-day period following receipt of the Notice, then the Members will be deemed to have waived their right to acquire the Interest on the terms described in the Offer, and the transferring Member may sell and convey the Interest consistent with the Offer to any other person or entity; provided, however, that notwithstanding anything in Section 3.B to the contrary, should the sale to a third person be at a price or on terms that are more favorable to the purchaser than stated in the Offer, then the transferring Member must reoffer the sale of the Interest to the remaining Members at that other price or other terms; provided, further, that if the sale to a third person is not closed within six months after the expiration of the 30-day period described above, then the provisions of Section 3.B will again apply to the Interest proposed to be sold or conveyed.
5. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of Section 3.B, should the sole remaining Member be entitled to and elect to acquire all the Interests of the other Members of the Company in accordance with the provisions of Section 3.B, the acquiring Member may assign the right to acquire the Interests to a spouse, lineal descendent, or an affiliated entity if the assignment is reasonably believed to be necessary to continue the existence of the Company as a limited liability company.

C. Substituted Parties: Any transfer in which the Transferee becomes a fully substituted Member is not permitted unless and until:

1. The transferor and assignee execute and deliver to the Company the documents and instruments of conveyance necessary or appropriate in the opinion of counsel to the Company to effect the transfer and to confirm the agreement of the permitted assignee to be bound by the provisions of this Agreement; and
2. The transferor furnishes to the Company an opinion of counsel, satisfactory to the Company, that the transfer will not cause the Company to terminate for federal income tax purposes or that any termination is not adverse to the Company or the other Members.

1. Any transfer of Economic Rights pursuant to Section 3.D will not include any right to participate in management of the Company, including any right to vote, consent to, and will not include any right to information on the Company or its operations or financial condition. Following any transfer of only the Economic Rights of a Member's Interest in the Company, the transferring Member's power and right to vote or consent to any matter submitted to the Members will be eliminated, and the Ownership Interests of the remaining Members, for purposes only of such votes, consents, and participation in management, will be proportionately increased until such time, if any, as the transferee of the Economic Rights becomes a fully substituted Member.

E. Death Buy Out: Notwithstanding the foregoing provision of Section 3, the Members covenant and agree that on the death of any Member, the Company, at its option, by providing written notice to the estate of the deceased Member within 180 days of the death of the Member, may purchase, acquire, and redeem the Interest of the deceased Member in the Company pursuant to the provisions of Section 3.E.

1. The Members agree to hire an outside firm to assess the value of the Membership Interest value of the deceased Member's Interest.

2. Closing of the sale of the deceased Member's Interest in the Company will be held at the office of the Company on a date designated by the Company, after the outside firm assessed the fair market value of the deceased Member's Interest in the Company.
3. If no personal representative has been appointed within 60 days after the deceased Member's death, the surviving Members have the right to apply for and have a personal representative appointed.
4. The Members will have 20 days after assigning value to the deceased Member's Interest to decide if they want to buy the Membership Interest together and disperse it equally. If all remaining Members do not agree to buy the Membership Interest, individual Members will then have the right to buy the Membership Interest individually. If more than one Member requests to buy the remaining Membership Interest, the Membership Interest will be paid for and split equally among those Members wishing to purchase the Membership Interest.
5. If all Members agree by unanimous vote, the Company may choose to allow a non-Member to buy the Membership Interest thereby replacing the previous Member.
6. At the closing, the deceased Member's estate or personal representative must assign to the Company all of the deceased Member's Interest in the Company free and clear of all liens, claims, and encumbrances, and, at the request of the Company, the estate or personal representative must execute all other instruments as may reasonably be necessary to vest in the Company all of the deceased Member's right, title, and interest in the Company and its assets. If either the Company or the deceased Member's estate or personal representative fails or refuses to execute any instrument required by this Agreement, the other party is hereby granted the irrevocable power of attorney which, it is agreed, is coupled with an interest, to execute and deliver on behalf of the failing or refusing party all instruments required to be executed and delivered by the failing or refusing party.

7. If no individual Member(s) finalize a purchase agreement by 32 days after assigning value to the deceased Member's Interest, the deceased Member's estate or personal representative may dispose of their Membership Interest however they see fit, subject to the limitations in Section 3. If a Member is a corporation, trust, partnership, limited liability company or other entity and is dissolved or terminated, the powers of that Member may be exercised by its legal representative or successor.
- F. Admission of New Member: The Members may by unanimous vote, admit new member in the Company in exchange for consideration that is mutually acceptable. Any new members shall, before being admitted and as a condition to admission, execute any document or documents required by the Company, agree to be and become a member of the Company, and agree to be bound by the terms of the Company Operating Agreement.
- G. Involuntary Withdrawal of a Member: The remaining Members may by unanimous vote, dissociate a Member due to several valid reasons including, but not limited to, repeated breaches of this Agreement, engagement in wrongful conduct that will or has harmed the Company or if the remaining Members have deemed it not reasonably practical for the LLC to continue with the Member. Unless a court orders otherwise, the withdrawing Member does not retain management rights in the LLC but maintains a financial interest in the Company.

Notwithstanding the foregoing provision of Section 3, the Members covenant and agree that on the involuntary removal of any Member, the Company, at its option, by providing written notice to the withdrawing Member, may purchase, acquire, and redeem the Interest of the withdrawing Member in the Company pursuant to the provision of Section 3.G.

1. The Members agree to hire an outside firm to assess the fair market value of the withdrawing Member's Interest.
2. Closing of the sale of the withdrawing Member's Interest in the Company will be held at the office of the Company on a date designated by the Company, after the outside firm assessed the fair market value of the withdrawing Member's Interest in the Company.

3. The Members will have 20 days after assigning value to the withdrawing Member's Interest to decide if they want to buy the Membership Interest together and disperse it equally. If all remaining Members do not agree to buy the Membership Interest, individual Members will then have the right to buy the Membership Interest individually. If more than one Member requests to buy the remaining Membership Interest, the Membership Interest will be paid for and split equally among those Members wishing to purchase the Membership Interest.
4. If all Members agree by unanimous vote, the Company may choose to allow a non-Member to buy the Membership Interest thereby replacing the withdrawing Member.
5. At the closing, the withdrawing Member or personal representative must assign to the Company all of the withdrawing Member's Interest in the Company free and clear of all liens, claims, and encumbrances, and, at the request of the Company, the withdrawing Member or personal representative must execute all other instruments as may reasonably be necessary to vest in the Company all of the withdrawing Member's right, title, and interest in the Company and its assets. If either the Company or the withdrawing Member or personal representative fails or refuses to execute any instrument required by this Agreement, the other party is hereby granted the irrevocable power of attorney which, it is agreed, is coupled with an interest, to execute and deliver on behalf of the failing or refusing party all instruments required to be executed and delivered by the failing or refusing party.
6. If no individual Member(s) finalize a purchase agreement by 32 days after assigning value to the withdrawing Member's Interest, the withdrawing Member or personal representative may dispose of their Membership Interest however they see fit, subject to the limitations in Section 3. If a Member is a corporation, trust, partnership, limited liability company or other entity and is dissolved or terminated, the powers of that Member may be exercised by its legal representative or successor.
